

EXPERIENCED PROSECUTOR NEEDED TO SERVE AS RESIDENT LEGAL ADVISOR IN THE UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

The Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT), Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, seeks an experienced Department attorney or Assistant United States Attorney to serve as the Resident Legal Advisor (RLA) in the United Arab Emirates. This assignment will commence in or about March 2006 and is for a term of one year. (This is a reimbursable detail.)

The RLA will represent the U.S. Department of Justice and OPDAT in the implementation of justice sector technical assistance activities in order to strengthen the bilateral relationship between the U.S. and the UAE on criminal justice matters. The RLA will work with appropriate host government officials to analyze, develop, and implement a more effective money laundering and financial crimes regime. This could involve analysis of and advice on anti-terrorism legislation, money laundering laws, asset forfeiture proposals and other related and potentially affected criminal statutes, codes, laws, and regulations. The RLA would also work to establish, as needed, task forces of police investigators, prosecutors and other relevant agents and officials to focus on particular criminal activity, such as money laundering, financial fraud and terrorism. The RLA would also be expected to assist in developing legal and judicial assistance approaches in areas that might include freezing/seizing assets, financial fraud, public corruption, organized crime, and extradition.

Applicants must have the ability to function effectively in an international, multi-cultural environment; be mature and self-sufficient; be able to efficiently and independently initiate and manage justice assistance projects; and possess extensive prosecutorial experience. Experience in handling complex financial matters involving money laundering is essential. Comparative law or other experience gained working within a Middle Eastern context is desired, but not essential. A working knowledge of the Arabic language would be beneficial, but is not required.

Interested applicants should send a resume and cover letter as soon as possible, but not later than January 31, 2006, to the attention of Liz D'Auria, Program Analyst, Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT), Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, 10th and Pennsylvania Aves., NW, Washington, DC 20530. Faxed or e-mailed submissions are acceptable. The fax number is: (202) 616-6770. The e-mail address is: Elizabeth.D'Auria@usdoj.gov.
